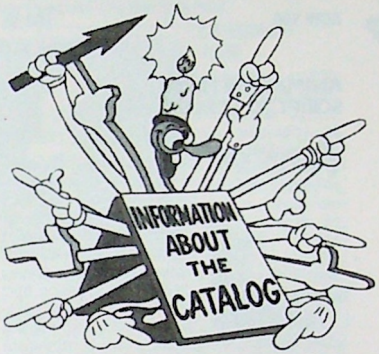
THE WHOLE TOON CATALOG



THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT VIDEO:

All our videocassettes are available in the VHS–NTSC format. To our overseas customers who desire PAL or SEACAM formats: sorry, we can't help you. To our diehard customers who desire Beta format: we will be happy to oblige you if possible. A small number of the titles can be had in Beta, but they will be special orders. Please inquire.

VHS Recording Speeds:

VHS videorecorders originally offered 3 record/playback speeds: SP (Standard Play/2 hr.), LP (Long Play/4 hr.) or SLP (Super Long Play/6 hr.). Nowadays most VCR's offer only 2 speeds: SP and EP (formerly called SLP). There are a handful of tapes offered here that are only available in the outdated LP mode. Please be aware that many newer VCR's cannot play LP tapes properly. Check your machine before ordering.

We're concerned with quality at Whole Toon, so we generally offer only SP tapes in the catalog. Sometimes a given title is only available in EP mode, so we make an exception rather than deprive you of the program material. When we know a tape is EP, we always indicate it, but sometimes we don't know if we haven't actually viewed the tape ourselves.

Laserdisc Formats:

There are two laserdisc formats: CLV (Constant Linear Velocity) and CAV (Constant Angular Velocity). CLV is the Long-Play format and CAV is the Standard-Play format. Unlike videotape, there is no difference in picture quality between the two formats. However, only the more expensive CAV format can produce freeze-frames, variable playback speeds, multiple soundtracks and other special effects. If you wish to study a film frame by frame, you will need to get the CAV format. (CAV also is the only video format with a true 1 to 1 film frame to video frame correspondence).

Moratorium is a term you'll run across often in the video world. It means that the title is no longer being produced by the manufacturer. When a tape is on moratorium, we can no longer get any from the manufacturer, although we may still have some stock left, or still be able to find a distributor with some unsold copies.

If a tape has gone on moratorium before this catalog was printed, we haven't listed it unless we're sure we can provide a decent supply. If you're looking for a tape that's not listed (i.e. many of the Disney classics), it's worth calling us to ask about it. Although we don't have it in sufficient quantity to list it, we may still be able to come up with a few copies here and there.

Come visit us at our retail outlet in Issaquah. If you're coming east from Seattle on I-90, take the Lake Sammamish State Park/Renton exit (State Rt. 900). Turn right off the freeway, go one block and turn right onto Gilman Blvd. Take the first right off Gilman onto 18th Avenue, and we're just a block up on your left (across from the Ford dealership).

We strive to provide our customers with the most comprehensive selection of animation on Earth. We buy from hundreds of sources in several countries and we're constantly searching for more. After years of serving animation fans, scholars and professionals, we've gotten a pretty fair idea of what you want from us, and with each new catalog we try to focus more efficiently on it.

We take the Whole in Whole Toon Catalog seriously. Our customers expect to find cartoons here, so we continue to expand our video section with each new catalog. From the latest Disney feature release to the most obscure art film on some small video label– if it's animated (and we can get our hands on it), you'll find it listed here. We try to apply a consistent criteria to our selections, eliminating the "storybook" videos that often get passed off as animation, and live-action puppetry such as the Muppets or "Supermarionation" like The Thunderbirds and Captain Scarlett. This also goes for books. We offer just about every currently in-print book dealing with animation, but we don't carry comic books, Far Side collections, or children's storybooks.

If you don't see what you're looking for, please ask for it. Unless we have an adequate supply on hand, we won't list out of print book titles or discontinued video titles. However, we just might still have some around the store, so it can't hurt to ask. Also keep in mind that new books and videos are released constantly, while our catalog is printed only twice a year. If something becomes available between catalogs, we'll most likely have it on hand when you call.

We make no claims whatsoever to completeness in the areas of animation cels, posters, toys, t-shirts and so on. But we do try to pick out some of the choicer items on the market each time.

THE ANIMATED POPEYE

Fred M. Grandinetti (1991)

A self-published book put together in association with the International Popeye Fan Club. Not big on production values, but chock full of the sort of minute detail that only a dedicated fan could amass. Loving detail is lavished on Popeye in all his animated incarnations, with a generous assortment of illustrations, including the NTA recolorings, TV versions, and advertising usage. Contains a complete episode guide for each different studio.

AMERICAN ANIMATED FILMS: THE SILENT ERA, 1897-1929

Denis Gifford (1990)

Arranged chronologically by series, this is the first complete annotated listing of all the animated films produced in the United States before the advent of sound. The book forms a companion volume to the author's British Animated Films 1895-1985 and will prove a boon to researchers of the history and development of animation. In this volume is information that has been scattered and virtually inaccessible for more than half a century.

ANIMATED TV SPECIALS:

Complete Directory to The First Twenty-Five Years, 1962-1987

George W. Woolery (1989)

Like Woolery's previous book "Children's Television", this volume is an amazing feat of research. It is an encyclopedic listing of all the special animated presentations aired on various networks or syndicated extensively in the U.S., from the first in 1962 through the 1987 season. It's the first book to trace the history, growth and development of animated films broadcast on American TV through descriptive profiles. Each entry includes broadcast history, production credits, narrators & voices and a lengthy synopsis and analysis. The book is thoroughly cross-referenced. A truly awesome and complete reference tool for researchers and fans alike.

ANIMATION FROM SCRIPT TO SCREEN

Shamus Culhane (1988)

Shamus Culhane, the animator of the dwarfs' march in Snow White, of Pluto, of countless other Disney sequences as well as those of other studios, makes it possible to learn a concrete skill from a book. Covering every aspect of film animation, from basic mechanics to giving creativity full play, and including writing, recording, acting, dialogue - even how to manage an animation studio of one's own, Culhane lives up to the book's title. Written by a man who knows and loves his subject and has a gift for communicating his thoughts.

THE ART OF THE ANIMATED IMAGE

Edited by Charles Solomon (1987)

This anthology was published in conjunction with AFI's Walter Lantz Conference On Animation (June 1987) and is a collection of essays and talks presented on a wide range of topics within the animation field. Subjects range from early pioneers such as J. Stuart Blackton, a technical discussion of Disney's multiplane camera, women in animation, to today's computer animation. A loose chronicle of animation as told by a variety of authors, from those that were there in the early days to those working on the future of animation.

THE ART OF HANNA-BARBERA

Ted Sennett (1989)

This huge book on Hanna-Barbera is loaded with illustrations and beautifully printed on extra-heavy paper stock. It thoroughly chronicles the characters and series created by H-B over the years, beginning with the MGM Tom & Jerry series. Unfortunately, it's quite thin on analysis, criticism, or even serious reference information. Definitely a winner as an art portfolio, but second-rate as a source of facts, figures and insights.

BAMBI: THE STORY & THE FILM

Ollie Johnston & Frank Thomas (1990)

This is the complete story of Bambi and the artwork that illustrates it. To complement the story, top Disney animators Thomas & Johnston give a vivid account of the creative struggles that followed the start of the Bambi project in 1936. For years, live deer were brought to the studio, science lectures were given, zoo field trips were taken, and thousands of paintings and sketches were made until the finished film came together in 1942. Beautifully illustrated throughout with artwork that has mostly never been published before. Includes a bonus flip book!

CARTOON ANIMATION: INTRODUCTION TO A CAREER

Milton Gray (1991)

Milton Gray is a professional animator, director, writer, and producer, who has worked on 16 theatrical features, from The Jungle Book to Poltergeist, and has directed numerous television shows from Thundarr to The Simpsons. His new book provides a detailed look inside the animation industry today, and how you can qualify as quickly as possible for employment. The text covers practical subjects such as what sort of drawing skills are necessary and how to acquire them, union wage scales, and the myriad of details to consider when budgeting a film project. It also discusses the recent employment trends in the animation industry, and offers some very candid opinions on the quality of certain animated shows and genres. Intelligent, well-written and fact-filled.

CHILDREN'S TELEVISION
How It Works and Its Influence on Children

Cy Schneider (1987)

Cy Schneider has worked for over 30 years in children's advertising and children's programming. While working for Mattel, he pioneered the use of TV as an advertising medium to reach kids, he helped market Barbie, was instrumental in launching many Saturday AM series as advertising vehicles, and launched the Nickelodeon network. This is a truly remarkable and eye-opening book by one who is intimately familiar with the history and concepts of the medium. It will give you a good education on the trends in merchandising tie-ins associated with children's TV programming.

ENCHANTED DRAWINGS
The History of Animation

Charles Solomon (1989)

An absolutely gorgeous art book, broken into "eras" beginning with early silent experiments, on through the "golden age" of Hollywood studios, and right up to the California Raisins, Roger Rabbit, and Pixar shorts. The book looks in on the entire animation field during a given era, rather than following individual studios through time as "Of Mice And Magic" does. Covering the same wide sweep of material as Maltin's book, Solomon sacrifices some of Maltin's depth in favor of an absolutely breathtaking assortment of cel setups, drawings, photos and illustrations. It's a beautiful art portfolio accompanied by intelligent and enlightening text.

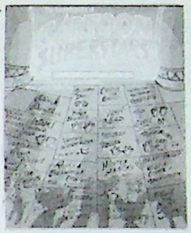
ENCYCLOPEDIA OF CARTOON SUPERSTARS
From A to (Almost) Z



John Cawley & Jim Korkis (1990)

This volume profiles 25 of the top animated characters and teams, including Mickey Mouse, Tom & Jerry, Bugs Bunny, Scooby-Doo, Popeye and many more. Instead of writing about the studios or animators, the book concentrates on the characters themselves. Did you know the Flintstones were originally going to have a boy instead of a girl, or that Heckle & Jeckle first appeared as husband & wife? Can you recall the early cartoons in which the Pink Panther talked? Any animation lover will be able to remember their favorite characters and perhaps learn something new about them. Each chapter is like a condensed book featuring a history of the character and quotes from the animators who worked on it.

FELIX: THE TWISTED TALE OF THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS CAT

John Canemaker (1991)

This is a stylishly written account of the scandal and intrigue behind the creation and marketing of the most popular, best animated, and financially successful cartoon of the silent era, as well as an illuminating study of film animation in the years before Disney. Canemaker exposes the darker side of Pat Sullivan, who withheld the credit due to Felix's creator, producer and animator, Otto Messmer, and gives us a well-rounded biography of Messmer's life and work after Felix. Credit is also given to Joe Oriolo, who revived Felix many years later and kept the torch alight.

THE FLEISCHER STORY

Leslie Cabarga (1988)

Leslie Cabarga has chronicled the true story of the amazing Fleischer brothers. While almost everyone is familiar with Betty Boop and Popeye, hardly anything had ever been written about the New York studio that created them- until this book. It is undoubtedly the most complete and accurate account of Fleischer Studios ever assembled. Contains rare photos and drawings and a complete filmography.

THE GREAT LOONEY TUNES COLLECTION

Jeff Sultanof (1990)

This book is a collection of the original sheet music for many of the most popular tunes used by Carl Stalling for scoring the Warner Brothers cartoons, much of which has not been in print for 40 years. 60 tunes are here, from Hello! Ma Baby to I Love To Sing. You're sure to recognize most of them, even if you never knew their names before. Just try to imagine Bug's voice as he sings "Moonlight Bay" adrift at sea on a raft, or sing the lyrics to "Merrily We Roll Along" when the title music for a Merrie Melodies cartoon comes on.

HANK KETCHAM: THE MERCHANT OF DENNIS

Hank Ketcham (1991)

Dennis' creator tells his story, starting as a child of the depression in Seattle. He abandoned college for Hollywood to pursue his dream of animating for Disney, and after drawing Andy Pandas, rabbits and monkeys for Walter Lantz, he was finally admitted to the Mouse Factory. His post-war career as a freelance cartoonist led to the creation of his long-running syndicated strip Dennis The Menace.

HOW TO CREATE ANIMATION

John Cawley & Jim Korkis (1990)

This is not another instructional how-to book, but a fascinating assortment of conversations with some top people in animation past and present. After brief introductory chapters on the history and techniques of animation, comes the meat of the book: an array of interviews with artists such as Bob Clampett, Jack Hannah, Chuck Jones, Bill Scott, Pete Alvarado, Mark Kausler, John Pomeroy, Don Bluth, Ron Clements, Darrell Van Citters, and many, many others. Each artist offers his thoughts on the art, personal reminiscences, and insights into his work habits and tastes.

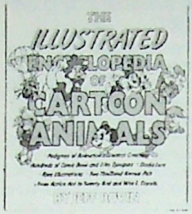
ILLUSTRATED ENCYCLOPEDIA OF CARTOON ANIMALS



Jeff Rovin (1991)

Two Thousand animal pals are listed here, from Action Ant to the The Zoo Crew. A broad listing of animal characters from animated cartoons, comic books and comic strips, listed alphabetically. Each listing includes a thumbnail description, a biography and comments. While no book could be totally comprehensive, this one makes a commendable effort to include minor characters along with the big stars. Of special note is the number of illustrations devoted to lesser-known characters: rather than publishing another shopworn illustraton of Garfield, the author chooses to show us Suicide Squirrel or Destroyer Duck. Quite well indexed, and an appendix categorizing characters by species (Pigs, Prairie Dogs, Squids, etc.). RECOMMENDED.

THE MAN BEHIND THE MAGIC

The Story of Walt Disney

Katherine & Richard Greene (1991)

With the authors' full access to the Disney archives and the cooperation of his family, this book affords a unique inside view of the Disney genius. It concentrates largely on the man himself rather than evaluating his work, and ends up providing fresh insights into the state of Walt's life and psyche during each major accomplishment of his career. Not a studio fluff piece or a cynical put-down of the man, but a refreshingly balanced portrait of the unusual human being behind the Mouse.

TEX AVERY

Patrick Brion (1984)

Never published in the U.S., Brion's homage to Tex Avery is an absolutely overflowing art portfolio of stills, animation drawings and cel setups. Featured are 3 facsimile quality original artworks: an 8 page sequence of animation overlays from "Slap-Happy Lion", 24 layout drawings from "Symphony In Slang", and a 36" wide foldout background drawing from "Droopy's Good Deed". Then there's a 6-page, 90-panel still-frame storyboard from "King-Size Canary", and of course, a complete (illustrated) Avery filmography. This is a truly breathtaking art collection. You can follow all the captions and index without knowing French, and if you do know French, you'll enjoy Brion's commentary as well.

TEX AVERY: LES DESSINS

NEW

Patrick Brion (1988)

A companion piece to Brion's earlier work, this is strictly an art portfolio. Brion has unearthed a wonderful collection of pencil roughs, layouts and model sheets – no cels or still frames – that are so exquisitely printed you could almost cut them out and pass them off as originals. The text is in French, but there's hardly any of it - just page after page of extremely rare drawings. A must for the devoted Avery fan.

Mel Blanc (1988)

Blanc's memoirs are packed with tidbits and behind the scenes looks at the cartoon and radio business. Blanc recounts his near-fatal auto accident and how he only came out of his coma when addressed as Bugs Bunny. There aren't a lot of stunning insights or revelations herein, but Blanc does paint a detailed picture of his remarkable career that belongs on any animation fan's bookshelf. Highly entertaining reading about the man that gave voice to hundreds of cartoon stars.

WHO CENSORED ROGER RABBIT

Gary Wolf (1981)

You've seen the movie, now read the book upon which it was based. Quite a bit different than the Disney/Amblin version, Wolf's story features a comic-strip star named Roger Rabbit, who talks by emitting speech balloons which fall away after use. This leaves the streets of Toon Town knee-deep in discarded balloons at all times. Eddie Valiant develops a grudging respect for Roger's supernatural twin, who helps him investigate Roger's murder.

BEANY & CECIL

This cartoon series received international theatrical distribution in 1961 before moving to ABC television where it ran from 1962 to 1968. Created by the great Bob Clampett, the series stars Cecil the Seasick Sea Serpent and his little pal Beany, who sail on Capt. Huffenpuff's ship to strange lands, meeting bizarre creatures and often thwarting Dishonest John. Brilliant and inventive, much of the adult-oriented punning will go over younger children's heads. All 80 episodes are collected on 13 volumes.

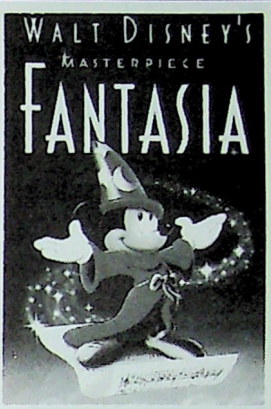
FANTASIA



The most often requested film over the years has finally been released on home video. Disney had always referred to both Fantasia and Snow White as "untouchables" - films that would never be released on video, but popular demand (and incredible profit potential) finally prevailed. Can Snow White be far behind?

Disney has also set a new record with their most limited availability window yet: 50 days only. Folks, please take this seriously! Come 1992, Disney will not make any more copies... EVER! After this, they will retire Fantasia for good (they claim), as they plan to release a sequel, Fantasia Continued, theatrically in 1996.

If you want this film, DO NOT WAIT. Disney has not been able to keep up with demand, and the laserdisc version is expected to completely sell out before Thanksgiving.

MR. MAGOO

Mr. Magoo was featured in the theatrical shorts produced by UPA and ditributed by Columbia Pictures. Based on Jim Backus' radio character "The Man In The Club Car", a misinformed, loudmouthed businessman on a commuter train. The brainchild of John Hubley- created to counter the cute anthropomorphism rampant at the time. Voiced by Jim Backus, the nearsighted, bumbling Magoo was by far UPA's biggest star. [Also see listings under "Columbia Pictures Cartoon Classics"].

MUYBRIDGE, EADWEARD: MOTION STUDIES
A Retrospective View by J. Sheldon
30 min.
Transport yourself back in time to a Victorian lecture hall with this visionary recreation of the world's first motion pictures. This innovative video by Jim Sheldon, curator of photography for the Addison Gallery of American Art, presents Muybridge's famous studies as he must have seen them in his mind's eye - in continuous motion. Features a complete reproduction of the 900 photographic plates from the Attitudes of Animals in Motion and Animal Locomotion, animations of 132 motion sequences and an audio lecture by Richard Leacock with readings from Muybridge's letters and papers. Muybridge remains the definitive reference on human and animal motion for artists, athletes and photographers.

The American dubbed version of 'Macross-Do You Remember Love? A race of giant male bionoids from outer space attacks the Earth, and the humans send their super space fortress to repel the invaders. The space war turns into a three-way conflict when the invaders' archenemy arrives- a race of giant female bionoids. Both bionoid armies assault Macross with huge robot-like spaceships. The earthlings appear doomed until they discover human behavior has strange effects on the aliens.

VOLUMES 27–39: "BOLAR WARS"
The Argo takes off to rescue mankind from yet another interstellar conflict. Against the enemies they face there can be no margin for error. On one hand there is the Bolar Federation. They crush all who stand in the way of their conquest of the Milky Way galaxy. On the other hand - is the Gamilon Empire led by Leader Desslok who has declared war upon the Bolars. It is because of one of their skirmishes that Earth finds itself caught between two warring factions.

INDEX TO ALTERNATE TITLES

In some cases (especially with Japanese animation released in the U.S.), films and TV series are re-titled – sometimes for theatrical re-release, sometimes for home video release, and sometimes due to an English translation of a foriegn title. To help you locate these chameleons, we have compiled an index to retitled films found in the catalog. The first title listed is an alternative title, with a reference to the corresponding title used in this catalog. All you fans out there: we welcome additions and corrections to this index!

Superhero PVC Figurines by Comic Spain

Imported from Spain, these collectible PVC figurines are rare and beautifully executed. Using different color plastics and hand-painted (some with metallic finishes), these Marvel and DC superhero figurines surpass any domestic offerings we've seen- both in terms of conceptualization and craftsmanship. Due to the difficulties of importing them, and the limited supply, we offer them only in sets.

COMIC SPAIN SUPERHERO PVC SET 1 9 figurines: Phantom, Conan, Hulk, Superman, Punisher, Batman, Wolverine, Spider-Woman & She-Hulk.

CS 101 ..... $65.00 (Shipping $2.50)

COMIC SPAIN SUPERHERO PVC SET 2 9 figurines: Phantom, Capt. America, Spider-Man, Iron Man, Silver Surfer, Daredevil, Dr. Doom, Thor & Cyclops.

CS 102 ..... $65.00 (Shipping $2.50)

COMIC SPAIN POPEYE PVC SET
6 figurines: Bluto, Popeye(Spinach), Swee'Pea, Wimpy, Olive Oyl, Popeye (Pipe).

LUPO THE BUTCHER Original Production Cels

From the twisted mind of Danny Antonucci sprang Lupo The Butcher - a 3-1/2 minute masterpiece that has spawned a loyal cult following across the world. These are the actual cel set-ups that went under the camera lens - not some chintzy reproductions or limited editions. Hand-inked and painted, these are extremely rare one-of-a-kind pieces of original animation art, each one signed by the artist. Danny is offering these four only... there are no more!

Shipping: $7.50 each (un-matted)

HOW TO ORDER

Mail your completed order form, along with a check or money order for the full amount made payable to: WHOLE TOON ACCESS

Or you can charge your purchase to your VISA or MasterCard. Please do not send cash.

Please give us a street address if possible, and make sure to include your Apartment or Suite number, if applicable.

To order by phone, please call us at (206) 391-8747, from 9:30–5:30 Pacific Time Monday through Friday or 10:00–5:00 Saturday.

DELIVERY

Most orders will be shipped via United Parcel Service. Post Office Boxes and APO/FPO's must be sent by parcel post, so please give us a street address to ship to if possible.

Most orders will be shipped within 2 weeks but occasionally we need longer, so please allow 4 to 6 weeks for delivery. If you need delivery sooner, please indicate it on the "Special Instructions" line at the top of the order form.

DAMAGED GOODS

All shipments are insured. If you receive goods damaged in transit, please contact the carrier first (UPS or the Postal Service) and report the damage. Then notify us so that we may rush you a replacement for the damaged merchandise.

RETURNS & REFUNDS

It's simple. If you're not completely satisfied with your purchase for any reason, we'll glady give you a refund or an exchange. This applies to all our merchandise under all circumstances without exception.

Please wrap the items you wish to return in their original packing materials and enclose a brief note explaining why you're returning the items, and whether you wish an exchange or a refund.

SHIPPING & HANDLING
